

---

MEDIA RELEASE

---

37 Main Street East, Huntsville, Ontario, P1H 1A1

705-789-1751 www.huntsville.ca

---

Subject: Media Release: Huntsville Cybersecurity Incident Update – Algonquin Theatre

Release Date: March 18, 2024

---

(Huntsville ON) As the Town of Huntsville continues to work with experts to investigate and recover from the recent cybersecurity incident, service impacts have been noted for the Algonquin Theatre for the month of March 2024.

The AC/DC Show scheduled for Saturday, March 23, 2024, has been postponed until further notice. At this time, we are unable to process exchanges or refunds due to the cybersecurity incident. Updates will be available through our website and social media channels as they become available.

The following shows are moving forward, with the logistical changes noted below:

- Reel Alternatives Movie – Monday, March 18, 7:00 p.m.
- JJ Dance Showcase – Friday, March 22, 6:00 p.m.
- Breakfast at Tiffany's – Tuesday, March 26, 7:00 p.m.
- Muskoka Dance Academy Showcase – Thursday, March 28, 7:30 p.m.

There will be no advanced ticket sales for these events. However, tickets can be purchased one-hour prior to showtime at the Algonquin Theatre. Tickets are NOT available at the Canada Summit Centre or online. If you have already purchased a ticket, please present your ticket at the door.

The Huntsville Art Society Gallery remains open from Monday to Friday 10:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. and features items from “The Collection”.

Buying tickets for future shows: Moving forward, information on shows will be communicated as it becomes available. Please follow Algonquin Theatre on Facebook.

The Town is committed to being as transparent as possible regarding this incident and its implications for our community. This type of incident takes time to investigate and recover from, and we would like to thank the community for their patience.

Regular updates will be provided regarding this incident, the impact to Town services, and any interim measures being implemented. Residents can stay informed by following the Town of Huntsville's newsfeed at Huntsville.ca on Facebook and on X (formerly Twitter).

For ticket-related inquiries, please contact the Box Office at 705-789-4975.